Pamela Wallace, Trout Point Lodge, Co-Owner/Operator

Pamela Wallace owns and operates Trout Point Lodge in East Kemptville, NS, with her husband Patrick. She grew up in Singapore and graduated from the University of Singapore with a BSc in Computer Science. She is a tech geek who loves travel and believes the world is a better place if everyone has the opportunity to explore and experience different surroundings and cultures. She has spent more than 21 years in travel and hospitality. Prior to taking over Trout Point Lodge, Pamela was Hilton Worldwide's Director of Online Distribution for Asia Pacific and responsible for Hilton's sales with key Online Travel Agencies (OTAs) such as Expedia, Booking.com, CTrip, MakeMyTrip and Rakuten. Before Hilton Worldwide, she was responsible for the partnerships and affiliates division for Zuji.com, a business unit of Travelocity in APAC, where she set up and expanded Zuji's distribution network across South-East Asia, HK/China, India, Japan and Korea. Currently in the forests of Trout Point Lodge, when not helping team members in housekeeping and cocktail making, Pamela devotes her time to building social media and web presence for Trout Point Lodge which has grown from 0 to >17K followers on Instagram and >8K on Facebook in 4 years.

Kelly Deveaux, Parks Canada Superintendant, Cape Breton Highlands National Park

Kelly Deveaux has worked in Nova Scotia's tourism industry for 20 years, in various positions with the municipal, provincial and federal governments, as well as the private sector.

With a Bachelor of Public Relations degree from Mount Saint Vincent University, Kelly spent the early part of her career with the former Nova Scotia Department of Tourism, Culture & Heritage before jumping to a Cape Breton-based marketing agency where she managed a variety of tourism clients throughout Atlantic Canada.

After joining Parks Canada eight years ago, Kelly now leads a large team in Cape Breton Highlands National Park who deliver exceptional experiences to visitors. From the front lines to product development, community partnerships and park management planning, Kelly works with her team to manage day-to-day operations in a busy national park, while also planning for growth and opportunities in the future.
