

MEDIA SCAN

Tourism Industry Association of Nova Scotia

‘Heartbreak Grap’ Wins NS Wine Award

A long summer seven years ago helped Lightfoot & Wolfville Vineyards receive top distinction among Nova Scotia’s wineries this year for its 2015 Blanc de Noris.

Louisbourg claws its way back after pandemic with CrabFest and other events

The Louisbourg CrabFest is clawing its way back this weekend. After being cancelled the past two years due to the pandemic, the popular celebration of the tasty crustacean returns to the town’s waterfront Saturday where thousands of people are expected to crack into snow crabs while enjoying live music.

Province Mum on Cost of Keeping Old Gallery

The minister responsible for the Art Gallery of Nova Scotia says he isn’t aware how much it’s expected to cost to stay put in the old building on Hollis Street.

Bell Lake paddling club gets a financial boost from feds

Dartmouth’s Abenaki Aquatic Club is about to get a well-funded facelift. Today Dartmouth – Cole Harbour MP Darren Fisher announced a federal investment of $315,000 through the Canada Community Revitalization Fund (CCRF) to the only women-led paddling club in the Atlantic region.

N.S. Black-owned businesses gear up for National Black Canadians Summit

People from across Canada will converge on Halifax this weekend for the National Black Canadians Summit. More than a thousand attendees are expected for three days of panels, performances and workshops.

Lineup announced for 26th Celtic Colours International Festival in Cape Breton

The 26th Celtic Colours International Festival has announced the lineup for the festival's return to Cape Breton in October. To kick off the event at the Sydney Centre 200, The Men of the Deeps, The Barra MacNeils, Dàimh, and Kris Dever will perform on Friday, Oct. 7, organizers said in a release.

Swim the Canal returns in St. Peter's

A summer tradition that sees people swim from the Bras d’Or Lake to the Atlantic Ocean is returning after a two-hiatus.

Cape Breton Community Events for July 29-Aug. 4

The Cape Breton Community Calendar is a public service listing of community events sponsored by non-profit groups.

